Norwich Bulletin

Where to Buy in Westerly

INDUSTRIAL TRUST COMPANY, Westerly Branch.

Capital Three Million Dollars Surplus Three Million Dollars Over Fifty Thousand Accounts. Mberal, courteous and efficient in its management.

Monumental Works

I will guarantee to make a monu-nent at the lowest possible cost con-letent with good work. My experi-ace of years is at your service. ALEXANDER ROBERTSON, Oak St., near High, Westerly, R. L.

Betablished 1901. Defective vision corrected by the prop ar adjustment of lenses. Room 9, Pol -Langworthy Block, Westerly, R. L.

It will pay you well to get our prices on diamonds, loose or meunted, before purchasing. CASTRITIUS. Leading Westerly Jewelr.

BEAVY AND LIGHT MARNESS

MADE BY HAND. Whips and all Harness Supplies car-ed in stock. Factory Made Harness stock at $13.00 and up. N. H. SAUNDERS. Removed to 44 West Broad Street.

BABIES!

Soon they will be big boys and girls and their baby faces will be only a memory. Bring the babies and I will catch their smiles.

STILES, The Photographer, Brown Suilding, Westerly, R. I.

Tetaphone 847.

GRO. L. STILLMAN, Proprietor of the
stillman Carriage Co.,
Ceggawell St.,
Westerly, R. I.
Carry the largest wagons. Also a full line of herness parts of harness. Carriage repairand painting and automobile paintje29d

For Electrical Supplies and Construction, see

ROBERT M. HISCOX & CO., 62 Main St., Westerly.

SEASHORE COTTAGES.

Furnished for Housekeeping. Accessible by Trolley. For Rent or Sale. FRANK W. COY, 6 High St., Westerly, R. L.

Gillespie treatment of the hair and scalp, cures failing hair, buildness, eczemas, dandruff and other irritations, itching burning, etc. Endorsed by leading physicians. Shampooes, dry treatments, facial treatments, manicure. Miss Lida Thomas, High St., Potter-Langworthy Euilding (Up Stairs).

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having purchased the photograph studie of A. A. Scholfield, 20 Main street, we are ready to prove to the people of Westerly and vicinity our ability to do the very best work. A beautiful 10x20 water colored portrait of yourself given free with every dozen $4.00 cabinets. F. Rouleau & Co., Westerly.

Buy Your Shoes and Hosiery and get a coupen on the Piano to be given away at PURTILL'S.

next to the 5c and 10c Store,

LAWTON'S SANITARY FISH MARKET

on the river; no dust; no oder; every thing wholesome and clean. All kinds of Fresh Pish and Sea Foods in their season. Market 171 Main Street, Westerly, foot of Cross street. Tel. 343. Give us a call.

Manicuring, Dermatology, Shampooing Surgeen Chiropodist, Scalp Treat-ment, Hair Dressing. MRS. M. I. EELLS

Frofessional Masseuse, Body and Facial Massage Hair Goods a specialty. Fine Violet Beeds.

16 Main St., Westerly, R. L.
19214 Telaphone 420.

WESTERLY'S LEADING CLOTHING STORE-

R. G. Bliven & Co.,

On the Bridge. REGAL SHOE AGENCY. We give S&H Green Trading Stamps with all purchases.

City Pharmacy

TRY OUR ICE CREAM, SODA and COLLEGE ICES While Waiting for Your Car. 36 Canal St., Westerly, R. L.

See my new camples of Fall and Winter Woolens. Custom Made Suits $1250 and up.

J. F. PELLEGRENY.

Ye. 4 Main St., Westerly.
Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing.
$1250

The Washington Trust Co.,

WESTERLY, R. L. $200,000 Surplus $200,000
Executes Trusts.

Pays Interest on Deposits.

Good service—Considerate attention are guaranteed the patrons of this institution.

WESTERLY MAN FOUND DEAD

John Casey, Once a Soldier, Seized with Weakness while Seeking Shelter from Storm-Body Found at Wood River Junction that of Andrew Rogers-Fire Police Reappointed.

tion of seiling the books of the library to pay for rent and other expenses, and closing the library. It was a rainy night and none other than the three directors were present. Just for sport the trio went through the form of or-ganization, one being elected presi-dent, the other secretary and the third was the body of the session. In a

That fair was held and netted $450 more than enough to pay off the debt and gave new life to the library and established a nucleus for the present published accounts of the library work and suggested to him the need of a more complete and free library. The endowing the institution for all time.

upon complaint of Grazia Piscatella by Deputy Sheriff Casey and is held tem-porarily in the Pawcatuck police sta-the present year. Both are residents of the town of Stonington.

Local Laconics.

ing the national convention of Anti-Saloon league in Chicago.

Attorney Samuel H. Davis is attend-

Rev. C. S. Morris of New York, who has been doing missionary work in this section for his colored brethren, spoke to a large congregation in Calvary Baptist church Wednesday evening.

The Lure of the Arctic.

It is evident that the attainment—not to say the dual attainment—of the North Pole will not deter adventurous voyagers from making their way into the frozen wilderness on discovery bent. Professor McMillan of the Peary expedition has decided to give up teaching, it is said, and devote himself to Arctic avaluation as a life work to Arctic exploration as a life work, while Evelyn B. Baldwin has long cher-while Evelyn B. Baldwin has long cheriahed a plan to drift across the unknown wastes north of Bering Strait regardless of the magical point at ninety degrees of latitude, and Captain Amundsen is preparing a five year ex-pedition with the same general end in view. Professor McMillan's first en-

She Hadn't Been Introduced.

It must have been a layman who laymen's missionary movement illus-trating the formality upon which per-sons sometimes stand in the case of introductions.

Lying face downward in a shed in Canal street occupied by Dwight Rogers, teamster, the body of John Casey was found at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. He was last seen alive shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Although addicted to strong drink, he was not under the influence of liquor at that time. He evidently went into the shed to get under cover of liquor at that time. He evidently went into the shed to get under cover from the rain, sat on a low gear truck, was suddenly stricken with weakness, probably occasioned by a diseased heart, pitched forward to the ground, and died of exposure.

Mr. Casey had been dead several hours when Dr. J. Howard Morgan, the medical examiner, was called. Dr. Morgan was estisfied that there was no foul play, and the body was taken in charge by Undertaker Murphy.

The deceased was a member of Company B, Third Connecticut infantry, and was with that command during the Spanish-American war. He was by employment a laborer, but was was by employment a laborer, but was not regularly employed. He was about 45 years of age and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Patrick Casey, of Mechanic street, three brothers and three sisters.

Edward O. Dunkley, an occasional resident of Westerly, but whose legal residence is New York city, arrived in Westerly Wednesday from a trip to Mexico. While writing a telegraph message at the Grand Central station in New York Tuesday he placed his dress suft case on the floor and supposed he was guarding it closely, but when, after completing the telegram, he reached for it, the suit case, a new one, costing $12, had disappeared.

Mr. Dunkley places his financial loss at $40, which does not include a valuable lot of photographs collected in Mexico.

Uncertainty as to the identity of the dead body of the man found in the pine woods near Weed River Junction pine woods near Weed River Junction has been removed and the body identified as that of Andrew Rogers, a resident of Auburn, Mass. The articles found on and near the body were examined Wednesday by Edward Rogers of Providence, a brother of the dead man, and by his son, Thomas Rogers. They agreed that the razor found by the dead man, and by which he took his life, and the pipe and other articles belonged to Andrew Rogers and that the clothing was also of the same make and material as was worn by Mr. Rogers.

Rogers. Andrew Rogers had worked in the Andrew Rogers and worked in the Wyoming company's yarn mill at Wyoming and he had not been heard from since April. His relatives thought nothing out of the ordinary in that respect, supposing that he secured employment in some other place and left Wyoming.

The Rhode Island state board of pharmacy held its final meeting under the old law Wednesday. Thirty-five applications were received, the largest applications were received, the largest applications were on the list at one meetnumber ever on the list at one meet-ing. The new law that will be in effect Jan. I provides that all applicants for registered pharmacists' certificates registered pharmacists' certificates must be graduates of schools of phar-

The liquor seizure at the Windsor house, so soon after the tavern license was granted by the town council, with explicit understanding that the license did not carry with it protection from prosecution for violation of the Mount tion for violation of the houor law, was naturally the cause of dis-cussion at the secret session of the council. It was divulged that the sale of liquor or keeping same with intent to sell did not carry with it revocation of the tavern license, but if it could be proven that any hotel was a liquor

Where to Buy in Westervl

ROBERT DRYSDALE & CO.,

Plumber, Steam and Gas Pitter and Dealer in Supplies. 54 Main Street, Westerly, R. L. and Wauwinnet Ave., Watch Hill, R. L aug14d

HOLIDAY GOODS.

We carry an extensive line of China, Silver, Cut Glass, Silver Deposit Ware, Leather Goods, etc. You can find goods in our steck you cannot find elsewhere. We pay express on all purchases sent to Norwich and vicinity. STANTON'S BAZAAR.

Westerly, R. I. Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

ARE SOLD BY I. B. CRANDALL CO.,

SMITH'S GARAGE

330 Main St., Westerly, Cars to rent; storing of cars; com-plete repair department. Full line of supplies, Tel. 330. nov23d

EAT AT MURRAY'S STAR RESTAURANT. next to Star Theater, Westerly, R. I. Regular Dinner, 25c. Meals at all hours.

AGENCY FOR THE

New Home Sewing Machines The lightest running, hest constructed, and the price is right. Call and see a demonstration at

THE NEW YORK STORE. Wm. H. Browning. 54 High Street, nov8d

MISS ROSE AHERN Ladies' Hatter 42 High St., Westerly

The Store

that undersells them all on Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods. MECHANICS CLOTHING COMPANY out of the High Price District, Westerly, R. I.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS.

DANIELSON

High Rating for Thirteenth Company -Prospects for New Industrychael Shea Held in $1,000 Bonds-Open Meeting of Relief Corps.

William Curran has gone to New ork after a visit with friends in Danielson.

Mrs. A. L. Reeves is improving at St. Vincent's hospital in Worcester, where she was taken last week. No operation has been performed.

Ludger J. Morin was a recent visitor in Boston to attend the meeting of a pharmacists' association.

Miss Margaret Sullivan and Miss Mary Murphy of Plainfield have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kennedy.

Calar Brooks entertained

nuisance under the law that the license could be revoked.

The council authorized the town solicitor to act as he deemed advisable in regard to hotels that violated the liquor law, especially with reference to the nuisance clause, so that legal action might be taken by the council as to the revocation of hotel licenses.

The liquors seized at the Windsor have been ordered destroyed by the court. friends at the home of Judge and Mrs. M. A. Shumway Tuesday. Attended Father's Birthday Celebra-

Charles Perry, president of the Washington Trust company, of the Westerly Board of Trade and chairman of the board of trustees of the Public Library and Memorial association and the Wilcox estate, became reminiscent while awaiting a quorum at the regular meeting of the Westerly Board of Trade Wednesday evening.

A severe rain storm prevailed and the members were arriving slowly when Mr. Perry remarked that sometimes important business was transacted by organizations when there was small attendance at meetings.

By way of Illustration he said that tion. Mrs. Albert L. Reed has been at her home in West Medford, Mass., to attend the seventieth anniversary of her father's birth. About 150 relatives and friends greeted Mr. Crosby.

Mrs. Israel Seguin of Central Village has been the guest of relatives in Danielson. in Danjelson.

Miss Margaret Duggan is ill at her home on the West Side. John Cocrane of Dedham, Mass., has been a recent visitor in Danielson. Mrs. Moses Bessette visited friends in Willimantic on Wednesday. By way of illustration he said that more than twenty-five years ago he and two other members of the board of directors of the old Pawcatuck library were in the rooms waiting for a quorum to arrive to decide the question of selling the books of the library.

eenth Company Complimented. At the inspection in the armory on Tuesday evening Col. Edward Schulze, inspector general for the Connecticut national guard, compilmented the Thirteenth company as having the best-kept guns of any he has seen so far during his inspection of coast artillers companies. tillery companies.

The feast of the Immaculate Concep-

The feast of the immaculate Conception was observed at St. James' church with masses at five, seven and eight o'clock Wednesday morning. All of the masses were well attended, a total of more than 1,600 parishioners being present at the different masses.

jesting way a motion was carried that the library association give a fair on three evenings and that the proceeds he devoted to the paying of the debt, so that the library might be contin-Fourth Theater on Reeves Circuit. The next day one of the trio circu-lated among influential residents of the town, mostly ladies, and made declaration that the library associa-tion had voted to hold a fair and pay off the indebtedness, asking the ladies to co-operate and make the fair suc-cessful. The idea was well taken and before the real situation was realized arrangements for the fair were well advanced. Abel L. Reeves has just purchased a controlling interest in the Bijou moving theater at Willimantic. This moving theater at Williamtic. This makes the fourth picture house on the Reeves circuit, the others being in Danielson, Moosup and Jewett City.

E. H. Hall of Windham, E. H. Cortiss of Thompson and Charles Barber of Plainfield, county commissioners, made their monthly visit to the jail in Brooklyn on Wednesday.

Winners at Whist.

Mrs. Annie Quinn won first honors and Mrs. Patrick Murray the conso-lation prize at whist, at the birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Kennedy on Tuesday complete library.

Subsequently Ethan Wilcox took charge of the library and through his personal efforts its influence increased. Stephen Wilcox became interested in evening. Visited Town Farm.

selectmen of the town of Killingly held a regular monthly meeting and paid a visit to the town farm at Dayville on Wednesday. Routine buswas transacted. Work Begun on Furnace Street Sewer result was the erection of the present public library building, the taking over of the Pawcatuck library, estab-lishing Ethan Wilcox as librarian, and The sewer workers commenced on the Furnace street extension Wednes-Chief Engineer Samuel G. Cottrell and his associates on the board of en-gineers of the Westerly fire district, David Robertson, Harry Coyle and Wilday morning. The men in the trench at the junction of Dyer and Franklin streets were cutting through a ledge of small proportions Wednesday morn-David Robertson, Harry Coyle and William H. Greene, have reappointed the fire police who served last year: John M. Himes, Philip Brown, William E. Burk, J. Henry Burk, A. T. L. Led, widge, Lewis Stanton, Russell L. Slocom, William Rae, Thomas Ingham, Arnold Burdick, Burnside Durfee and William H. Holland. ing and doing a small amount of blast-ing. It has also been decided to cut through the crown of the stone arch of the Franklin street bridge to make space for the pipes: workmen were engaged on this task Wednesday. ing. It has also been decided to cut through the crown of the stone arch tof the Franklin street bridge to make space for the pipes: workmen were engaged on this task Wednesday.

Borough's Chance of New Industry.

It is said that a company has taken an option on the vacant factory at Industrial place and that a deal may Borough's Chance of New Industry. Philip Bonomo has been arrested Industrial place and that a deal may be carried through that will give Danjelson a new industry.

Frederick Shumway and William Witter in Billiard Match.

porarity in the Pawcatuck police sta-tion pending the furnishing of a bond of $1,000 for his appearance in the superior court for New London county at the January term. Bonomo is charged with breach of promise to marry Miss Piscatella, made Oct. 1 of the present was Both are existence. Members of the Bohemian club ar interested in the prospect of a friendly billiard match between Frederick Shumway, crack player of this sec-tion, and William Witter of New York, who is staying for a few days at his old home in Canterbury. Both men are exceedingly good players. They have already played a few games at the club and have stirred enthulasm by the unusually interesting games they have played.

SHEA HELD IN $1,000 BONDS. Admits Now that He Did Not Come from Norwich.

Michael Shea, the crook who was rounded up in Putnam by State Po-liceman Robert Hurley, on Tuesday evening, pleaded guilty to a charge of obtaining moncy under false pretences in the town court of Killingly Wedin the town court of killingly Wed-nesday morning, and was held for the superior court by Judge Harry E, Back in default of bonds of $1,000. Mr. Shea has made a wonderful recovery from his various afflictions. He has also revised his claim as to his He has also revised his claim as to his home city, telling Wednesday morning that his home is in Columbus. Ohio, and not in Norwich, as he said when arrested. That may be the truth and it may not be. The officers think not. Officer Hurley decided Wednesday morning to have Shea photographed, and took him to a local studie for that purpose. Shea did not relish the idea a little bit and suffered a momentary.

view. Professor McMillan's first enterprise will be the exploration of Crocker Land (incorrectly referred to in a news despatch as Crockett's Land), the untrodgen tract which Commander Peary thought he saw from the northwest shore of Grant Land three years ago, and which Professor McMillan believes Dr. Cook reached in 1908. With the age-long polar controversy settled and the absence of land at the "top of the world" determined, there is still much to see and do in the Arctic; indeed, there are advantages in having this former problem solved and once for all put out of the way.—Providence Journal. a little bit and suffered a momentary a fittle bit and subsered a momentary return of the palsy that is a part of his stock of trade. This aversion to being photographed leads the officers to believe that the man is wanted to believe that the man is wanted somewhere. Shea was quickly persuaded that the proper thing for him to do was to keep quiet until his picture could be taken. Later in the morning he was taken over to the jail at Brooklyn, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Michael Grimshaw. He will remain there until the March term of the superior court

Many at Relief Corps' Open Meeting The members of the W. R. C. had a large number of their friends at their open meeting in their rooms in the Keystone block Wednesday evening. As had been expected, the art gallery proved an attractive feature for all who attended.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Body of Unknown Man Found by Fox Hunter-introductions.

"A certain man residing in Boston," he said, "had a daughter renowned for her wit and beauty and known for her hauteur. Father and daughter were staying in a prominent hotel at a popular New England summer resort, and one evening when the father went from the dining room to look for his daughter he discovered her standing on the piazza leanto look for his daughter he discover-ed her standing on the piazza lean-ing over the railing and looking to-wards the sea, her waist encircled by the arm of a young man who was sharing with her the beauties of the The body of an unknown man who was probably frozen to death was found by Dr. M. S. Warren Wednesday afternoon while he was out fox hunting. The body was that of a man between 55 and 60 years of age and was discovered being page 2 age and the between 55 and 60 years of age and was sharing with her the beauties of the sunset.

'Indignant and astonished, the father commanded in stern tones:

'Ethel, tell the young man to remove his arm from your waist?

'The daughter turned her head towards her angry parent and replied in key tones:

"Tell him yourself, papa, the gentleman is a perfect stranger to me!"

"Natural Rivals."

New York, Providence and Boston papers plead for those "natural rivals," Dartmouth and Brown, to get together again on the gridiron, but we do not hear much enthusiasm for the match up this way.—Concord Monitor.

The Union Oil company's well at Rozemary, Cal, has reached a depth of 1,222 feet, and still drilling.

wore a knitted jacket, a black negligee shirt and a heavy blue undershirt. His underdrawers were jersey, fleece lined, and his socks, nearly new, of gray wool.

Although there were no marks on the body to help identify the man, the fourth finger on the left hand is cut off at the first joint. In the pockets of his garments a razor bearing the mark of E. H. Keach of Danielson was found; also a razor strop, a small mirror and an empty pocketbook. The man may have been a mill worker and an effort to clear up his identity will be made today.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary A. Dixon.

Mrs. Mary A. Dixon, 82, died at her home on the West Side Wednesday noon. Mrs. Dixon fell and broke her hip some time ago and has since been in ill health. She leaves one son, William, of Damelson, where the family has lived for many years. Mrs. Dixon's husband died thirteen years ago.

Burial of Louis Dionne. The body of Louis Dionne, who died at Baltic, was brought to Danielson Wednesday afternoon for purial in St. James' cemetery. L. E. Kennedy had charge of the funeral arrangements.

PUTNAM

Captain Longdon After Old Berth-W. H, Taylor Receives Sketch of Governor Lilley-Common Council Holds Final Meeting-D. A. R. Christmas

Edward H. Parkhurst of New Haven s visiting his sister, Mrs. C. E. Sabin. Frank Monohan has sold his shop to Frank Rita. Mr. Monohan expects to locate in Providence.

Augustus Warren has entered the employ-of Charles Miron.

B. N. Andrews, carrier on rural route No. 4, is spending a vacation of eight days in Providence, Boston and other

Mrs. Alphonse Dunre is visiting relaives in Providence.

Mrs. Chauncey Morse is visiting elatives at Marblehead, Mass.

Mrs. C. H. Kelley has returned from stay of six weeks in Attleboro, Mpss.
Fred Winslow is spending several days with relatives in Woonsocket.
The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. A. R. Simpson Wednesday after-

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Flagg have been entertaining Miss Anna Flagg of Abington. Captain Longdon Said to Seek Reappointment,

It was said Wednesday that former It was said Wednesday that former Capt. William H. Longdon is out looking for a reappointment to the head of the city police department. Mr. Longdon preceded Capt. John Murray in the office. The latter will naturally be a candidate for reappointment and has strong backing in the council as the result of his excellent record.

The members of the republican city committee are to hold a meeting tocommittee are to hold a meeting to-morrow (Friday) evening for the pur-pose of closing up business matters incident to the recent election.

Collided With Express Wagon, Frederick Cutler, 80, of East Put-nam, was thrown out of the vehicle in which he was riding when his rig came in collision with one of Keith's

SKETCH OF GOVERNOR LILLEY Received from J. Olin Howe for Taylor's Souvenir.

W. H. Taylor received on Wednesday the memorial sketch of the late Gov. George L. Lilley wirich is to appear in the coming number of the Connecticut Legislative History. The sketch was prepared by J. Olin Howe of Watshinty Armaria private seems. of Waterbury, formerly private secre-tary to Congressman Lilley, and con-tains about 3,500 words.

Reunion Teo Much for Old Soldiers. Reunion Teo Much for Old Soldiers.

Edward Clarke, 68, and Robert Clarke, 65, brothers and veterans of the Clv'l war, were presented in the city court Wednesday morning charged with intexication, and their unfortunate predicament may have been caused as the result of a brief reunion between the two. Robert is employed in Woodsteck and Edward is an inmate in a Soldiers' home in Massachusetts. Robert was fined $1 and chusetts. Robert was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $8.09, and Edward agreed to return to the home at once. Judge Russell Will Retire.

Among the changes that will occur at the beginning of the new year in the official city family will be the retirement of Judge F. F. Russell from his place as judge of the city court. Deputy Judge L. H. Fuller will succeed Judge Russell, Attorney Mahlon H. Geissler filling the vacancy caused by the advancement of Deputy Judge Fuller.

Congregational Ministers to Meet. The Windham association of Congregational ministers is to held a meeting in the pariors of the local Congregational church next Tuesday, opening at 10.45. Rev. W. J. Reynolds of Dayville, Rev. Harry Grimes of Windham and Rev. A. S. Smith will be the meakers.

Firemen's Ball Committees. W. S. Fuller, J. A. P. Gagne and James Barnes have been named a com-mittee of Mansfield Hose company, No. 3, to join with committees from other companies of the fire department in making arrangements for the annual firemen's ball.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holds Final Meeting of Present Administration - Clearing Up City Business.

There was very little business to be considered at the last meeting of the commen council as it exists today and the December session was one of the shortest of the year. Mayor J. J. Mc-Garry presided and City Clerk Leon T. Wilson, Aldermen Smith, Joslin, Brodeur, Hawkins, Miner, Dumas and Tefft were present.

On motion of Alderman Dumas it was voted that the actual cost to the city of sprinkling the streets and high.

was voted that the actual cost to the city of sprinkling the streets and high-ways be borne by the owners of the property abutting the streets so watered and that the abutters be assessed according to the street sprinkling assessment rate for 1909.

Aldergan Durans superintendent of sessment rate for 1909.

Alderman Dumas, superintendent of streets, reported that the surface water drain recently authorized at a special city meeting had been laid in Grove, Ring, Bradley, Freemont, Chapman and Arch streets; also that with the exception of a little detail work the work

Ring, Bradley, Freemont, Chapman and Arch atreets; also that with the exception of a little detail work the work had been completed.

The appropriation for the improvement was $1,500, Aldesman Dumas reporting that of this amount about $200 remains unexpended.

The regular monthly bills were passed upon and ordered paid. Among the bills for the month are Putnam Light and Power company $32,93, R. B. Marriott & Sons $720.05, Wheaten Building and Lumber company $121.61, Putnam Water company $1,173.05, Jahn $108.32.

The meeting adjourned until the first Monday in January, when Mayor-elect Archibald Macdonaid will take the oath of office and the council will be reorganized for the ensuing year. Described Trip Through Yell

The members of the O. M. chrb spant a delightful evening at the home of Miss Mary Wheaten in Prespect street Wednesday. Current events were discussed. The hostes gave an account of her trip through Yellowstone park which was most entertaining. Dainty refreshments were street during the social hour.

HOLIDAY BALE

Held by D. A. R. Chapter for Benefit of Old Cometery Fund.

Mrs. W. H. Mansfield and Miss Anna Sampson were the committee in charge of the D. A. R. Christmas sale held at the home of Past Regent Miss S. Elizabeth Clarke in Elm street Wednesday afternoon. The sale was a great success. The proceeds are to be used toward the improvement of the old cemetery. old cemetery.

Social and Personal. Mrs. Helen Willey is the guest of Miss Janette Morrison in Boston. J. F. Carpenter was in Boston Tree-

J. F. Carpenter was in Boston Lucsday.

Miss Eunice Park of Stafford, whose fich contralto voice was enjoyed by the many who heard it when Miss Park sang at the Christian Endeaver rally in this city in October, is to be the guest of Mrs. W. J. Bartlett seme time this month, when an opportunity to hear her sing again may be given the public.

the public.

Rev. W. Stearns, formerly of Pomfret, has moved his family to a new home, corner of Bradley and Fremont streets.

Tibaldo's Idea Enacted.

Lieut. Tibaldos, the Greek naval mutineer, has accomplished something in spite of his digrace. He had fought for a competent naval force and the elimination of royal and other fiag officers, who had stepped promotion by their long tenure. Now that Tibaldos is out of the way the Hellenic parliament has passed a bill embracing these reforms, which, in the opinion of many Greek publicists who did not sympathize with the mutiny, are vital to the flaval efficiency of the kingdom.—San Francisco Chronicle.

In a Class by Themselves. Tenny followed Salvator to horse heaven within a very few days. There they can fight again their turf battles and neigh with disdain at the selling-platers that perform in present-day fixed events.—Nashville Ameri-

Save Money on DIAMONDS by purchasing of

GEO. E. SHAW, Putnam, Ct.

Opening Announcement

HOLIDAY SEASON OF 1909

We invite the seeker after Christmas Gifts to view our varied and carefully selected lines.

The critical buyer will find here complete and beautiful selections of Imported China, Cut Glass, Statusry, Lamps, etc., etc. CHOCOLATE SETS. 75e to $7.50

BERRY SETS. $1.25 to $5.00 NUT SETS, 750 to $1.50 Syrup Cups, Cheese Dishes, Cake Plates, Creamers, Gelery Trays, Vases, etc. All in China and embraoing man unique and exquisite designs.

A thousand and one cholose to help out the undecided gift buyer. An inspection of our Christman stock is what you owe yourself.

The Quinebaug Store

F. E. COLVIN, Mgr. Damielson, Conn.

HARRY E. BACK, Attorney-at-Law PATENTS

Protect your idea. Handsome 04-

page Guide Book Free.

ISAAC CHAMPBAU, Man Putnam, Cons.

THE CLEARANCE SALE CONTINUED

at The Boston Dry Goods Store, Dan-ielson. Some big discounts for our Customers another week; Attractive Bargains on every counter in the store, Buy these goods now. sept20d

Special Chocolate Cream Grops 10 Cents a Pound

at THE KEYSTONE STORES Danielson. sept8d

ELECTRICAL WORK

All branches. High grade sem Satisfaction guaranteed. Price lowest possible level. L. A. BRADFORD

Center Street

